Key Stage Curricular Goals – KS3

To develop knowledge of puberty, begin to understand safe relationships and who trusted adults are.

To develop personal communication for a variety of audiences including social and academic. To foster positive relationships.

To develop healthy bodies and minds and begin to understand who to ask for help.

To actively participate within the community and make a positive contribution.

To begin to develop life and study skills appropriate for their stage of development and extended curriculum.

Achieve their personal best.